

Abstract of the Disclosure

A method and apparatus for managing both link and disk bandwidth utilization within the context of a multiple subscriber or user information distribution system by selectively providing variable bitrate 5 and constant low bitrate information streams to one or more subscribers.

Patented by the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office on 11/11/2009.